

Fun Beaver Facts!

A beaver can chew through a small tree in less than 10 minutes.

A beaver's teeth never stop growing — that's why they gnaw on wood so much, to keep them worn down!

A beaver's home is called a lodge, usually built from sticks, branches and mud.

Beavers have special see-through eyelids that work a bit like goggles underwater.