The Tools Dinosaur Dig

By Mike Bannerman

It was a bright, sunny morning at Redstone Quarry.
Wayne was busy in the loader. Shamus was digging - well, the excavator was doing the digging.

Roxie sat reading her favourite dinosaur book.

CLUNK!

Out of the red rock poked... three enormous horns!

"It's a DINOSAUR!" gasped Roxie.
She flicked through her book until she found a picture that matched.
"Listen to this," she said...

NAME: TRICERATOPS

HERBIVORE

ITS NAME MEANS
"THREE-HORNED FACE",
AND IT USED ITS HUGE HORNS TO PROTECT ITSELF, SOMETIMES
EVEN FROM A T. REX!

HORN STRENGTH GAUGE

SUPER STRONG

PROTECTED BY A SOLID BONE FRILL.

Word spread fast, and before long JJ the Jackhammer started drilling up the ground at FULL VOLTAGE!

Rocks flew in every direction!

When the dust finally settled, Roxie brushed away the dirt from something long. Very long. Very, VERY long...

"A Diplodocus!" said Roxie, holding up her book so everyone could see.

"It says here..."

NAME: DIPLODOCUS

HERBIVORE

IT WAS LONGER THAN TWO BUSES, AND IT MAY HAVE SWISHED ITS LONG TAIL TO KEEP PREDATORS AWAY!

IT MUNCHED ON LEAVES
ALL DAY

TAIL LENGTH GAUGE

EXTRA LONG

Hector got his map out to look for more places to dig.
Diesel leant on the Rock Hauler for a little rest. Right against the big red button.

SPLOOOSH!

Mud poured all over the Diplodocus. Oh no! Now they have to dig it up again!

After a lot more digging, the Diplodocus was out and loaded, bone by bone, onto Shamus's purple rig.

Hector studied his map.
Behind him, Paz zoomed past in a wheelbarrow, with Wayne chasing after him.

Out in the desert, Sheldon and JJ started digging. Before long, something solid and round poked out of the ground.

"That's not a rock," said Sheldon. "That's a CLUB TAIL!"

Paz rolled up in the Heavy Hauler just in time to see them uncover a whole dinosaur, covered in armour.

Roxie looked up the armoured dinosaur in her book. "Found it!" she said...

NAME: ANKYLOSAURUS

HERBIVORE

IT WAS COVERED IN ARMOUR LIKE A TANK, AND IT SWUNG ITS TAIL
CLUB LIKE A GIANT HAMMER TO KEEP PREDATORS AWAY

MAX TAIL CLUB FORCE GAUGE

EVEN ITS EYELIDS HAD ARMOR!

JJ lifted the huge Triceratops skull all by himself. Into the Heavy Hauler it went, right next to the Ankylosaurus and its big club tail.

Meanwhile, Hector and Roxie flew over Twin Falls, looking for places where more dinosaur bones might be hiding.

Roxie took a picture - and it wasn't a dinosaur. It was Diesel, fast asleep in his deckchair in the middle of the desert! Oh Diesel!

Down in a dried-up riverbed, Hector spotted something big...

"Is that...?" whispered Hector.
Roxie opened her book and pointed.
"Tyrannosaurus rex!"

NAME: T - REX

CARNIVORE

ITS TEETH WERE AS LONG AS BANANAS, AND IT HAD ONE OF THE STRONGEST BITES OF ANY ANIMAL THAT EVER LIVED.

BITE FORCE GAUGE

Diesel started putting the bones together. But he got it all wrong: the T. rex now had a Triceratops head!

Roxie laughed so much she had to sit down.
"Diesel, you've given the T. rex horns! That skull belongs to the Triceratops!"

On the way home, Shamus's purple rig got stuck in the sand.

Shamus tried his hook. He tried pushing. Nothing worked. So Hector rang Ricky the Rake.

Over the dunes came Ricky in the Monster Truck. He hooked on, revved up and towed the purple rig out of the sand.

Ricky and Paz looked at each other.

"Race you!" said Paz.

"You're on!" said Ricky.

"Oh no!" said Hector.

Across the desert they roared, dust flying,
all the way back to Twin Falls.

Finally, Diesel put the right skull on the T. rex. It stood tall and proud, and Diesel gave it a big thumbs up.

Then Roxie pointed. Paz was still racing across the desert in the Heavy Hauler, and he couldn't stop!

CRASH!

Bones flew everywhere. Luckily they were too tough to break!

Hector had a great idea... build a Dinosaur museum! Somewhere fun to keep the bones that everyone could visit. He started to draw the plans.

Meanwhile, Paz was tidying up the bones he'd knocked down.

"Are there any dinosaurs still around?" he asked Roxie.

"No," she laughed.
"They're all extinct!"

So the crew got to work, each one doing what they do best. Everyone was very excited!

Patrick's train carried the bones to their new home. Nearby, Bettie the bucket spotted something smooth and speckled. It was a dinosaur egg!

At last, it was finished: the Twin Falls Dinosaur Museum! All the dinosaur bones and more were safe inside!

Then... crack... CRACK! Bettie's egg was hatching!

The idea of The Tools came to me when I was 7 years old. I was doodling on a piece of paper and drew a saw with a face and arms and legs. Soon, more tool characters were created and my mum, dad and close family would always encourage me to make something of it.

Years later, I used the same idea and stories and created these children's books. With a Christian upbringing, I've always had a strong relationship with God and I truly believe He blesses us with ideas and things we might not even think to use. So for every idea or story that I write or have written, to God be the glory. Please find the inspirational Bible quote at the back of each of my books and may God bless each and every one of you.
