The Tools and The Farm

It was a busy time of year on Twin Falls Farm and some of the tools had come to help out. Pete the Pitchfork is the farmer here, always making sure everything is running smoothly, with the help of his horse, Harold.

Lorenzo was in charge of the strawberries and he took it VERY seriously. Wayne was making a brand new horseshoe. Sparks flew everywhere!

Ricky Rake works on the farm too — but Ricky's real love isn't farm work at all. He loves racing! Trucks, tractors, quad bikes, anything with an engine, Ricky will race it.

Paz and Roxie had turned up to help. Which meant only one thing... as they loved to race too!

Pete looked at the three of them.
This was going to be trouble.

High above, Hector Hammer zoomed around in his plane, watering the huge fields below. Sam the Spanner sat in the back with his binoculars, scanning the farm. It's a great way to look and see what needs fixing!

Then he spotted something — Roxie, zooming along on her quad bike! This was about to become a race!

Sure enough, Paz and Roxie were already racing Ricky across the farm, dust flying everywhere! Paz zoomed along on his red quad bike. Roxie wasn't far behind.

Then a bull lifted his head.
Bulls like to chase after red things!

The bull charged after Paz at full speed! It wasn't Paz he was chasing. It was his bright red quad bike! "Quick, Paz!" shouted Roxie.

Ricky thought the whole thing was hilarious. Nothing ever bothers Ricky!

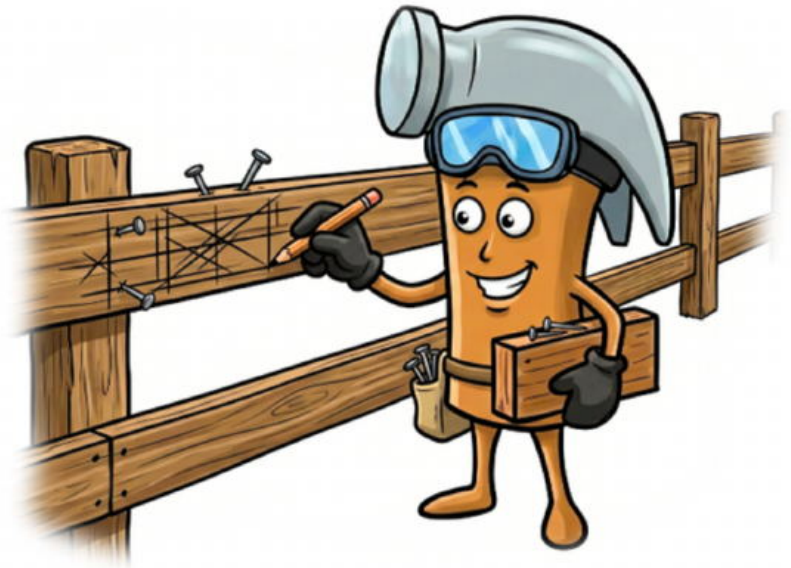

CRASH! The bull smashed straight through the fence! Luckily he spotted some long grass — and completely forgot what he was doing.

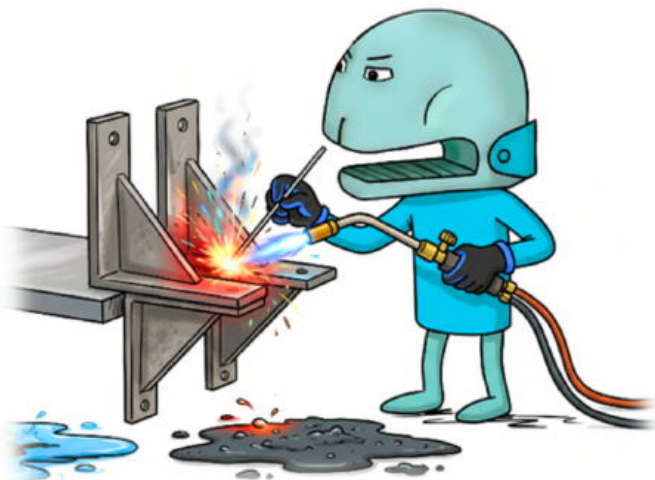

Frankie the Flathead wandered over. Frankie loves a bit of chaos. "We better fix that fence" he laughed. "Before all the sheep escape!"

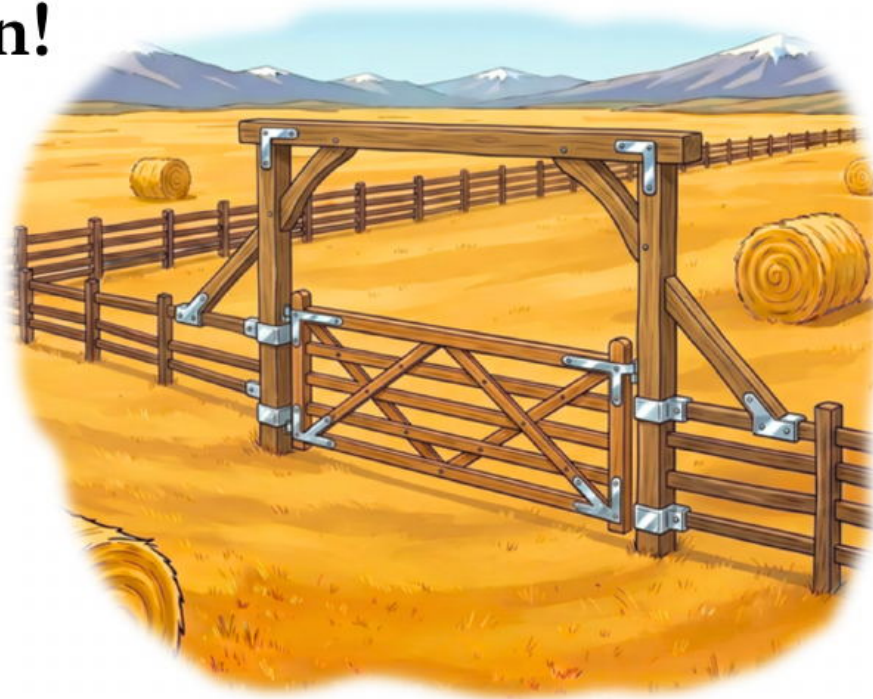

Hector rushed the crew over to fix the fence. Roxie carefully strolled up to the bull and led him calmly back home. All the animals love Roxie!

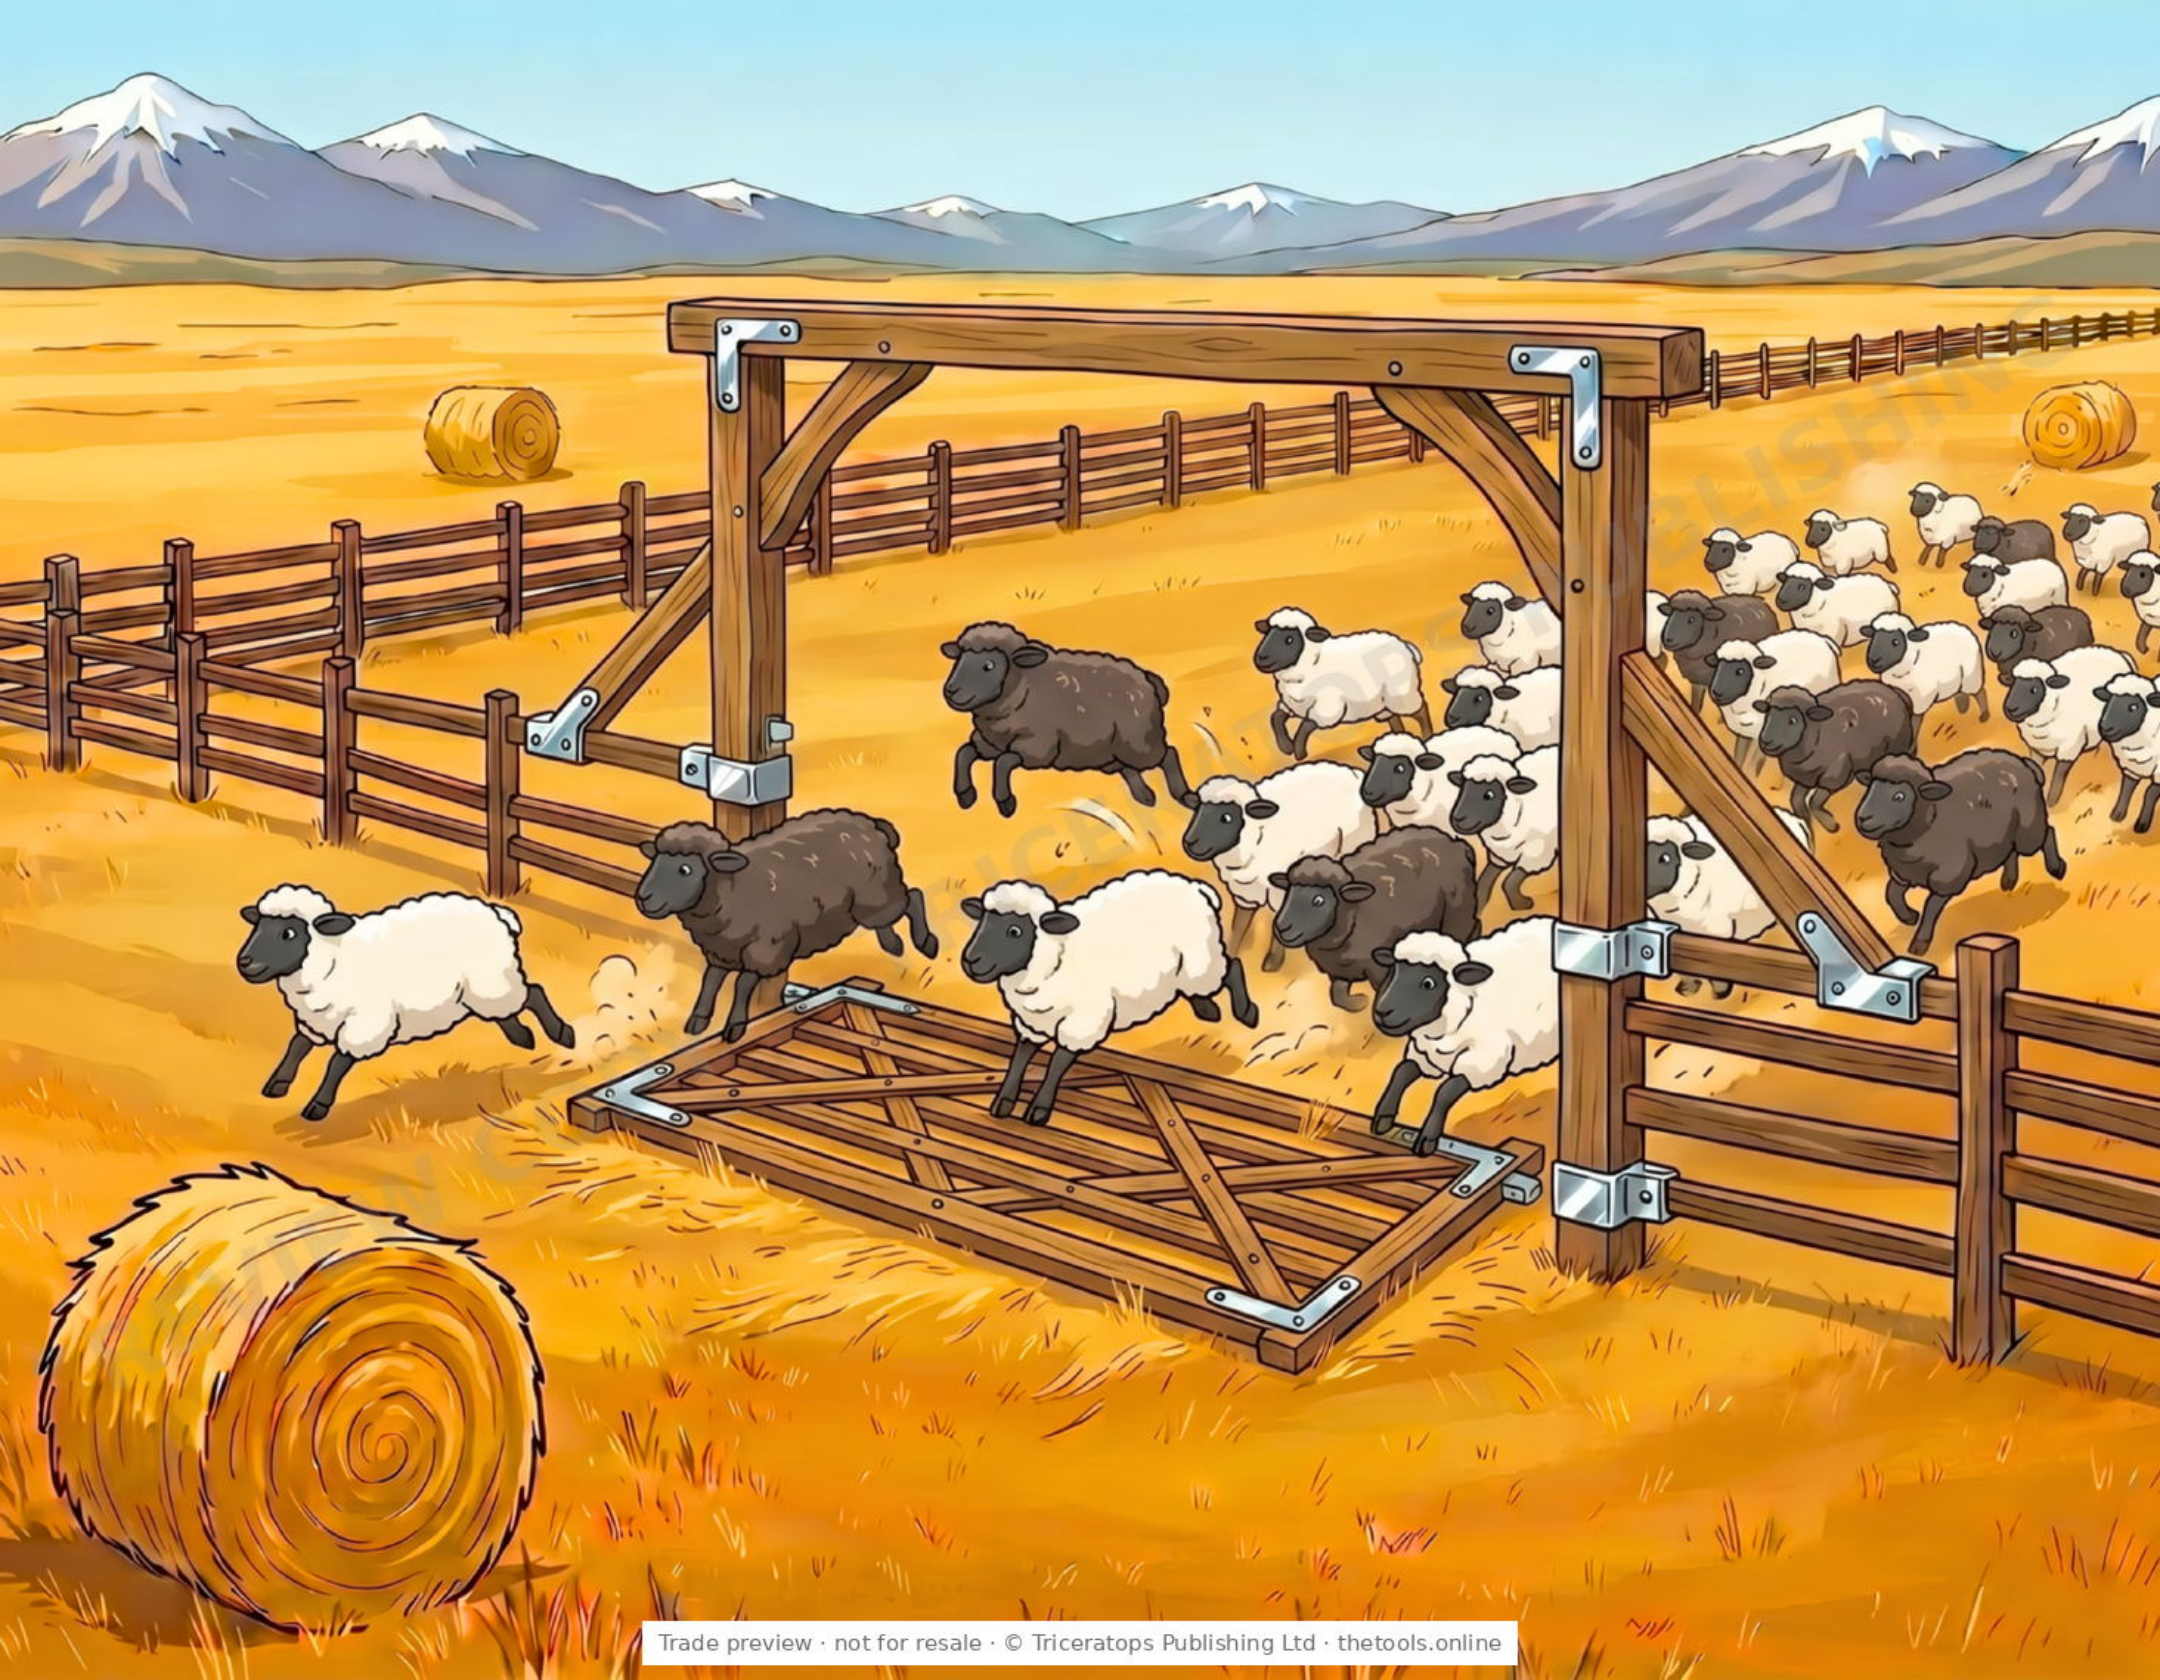

Wayne welded the brackets for the new fence and gate. Finally it was finished. That should keep the sheep in!

Just one job left — fitting the gate! Frankie spun the wrong way and unscrewed it completely. The sheep came pouring out! "Oh no!" yelled Paz. Frankie just shrugged. "They'll come back. It'll be fine!"

Meanwhile Hector, Sam and Diesel were hard at work fixing Pete's tractor.

The tractor was so big it didn't even fit in the barn!

The tools fitted the plough. Diesel jumped straight in and offered to do the ploughing! "That's not a good idea" said Hector, who knew exactly what he was like! Diesel ploughed the field from top to bottom, corner to corner, not missing an inch. There was just one small problem...

The field hadn't needed ploughing at all! If anything, he'd ruined a perfectly good field. Oh, Diesel!

Back at the strawberry patch, Lorenzo looked very angry!

The sheep were munching their way through the strawberries!

“Who Let The Sheep Out?!” he yelled.

Paz and Hector chased after the sheep while Roxie and Frankie rolled around laughing. This was not going well...

Paz had a brilliant idea! Ride one sheep, and the rest would follow! He leapt onto the biggest Ram he could find — a Ram is a boy sheep and this one had VERY strong legs. The Ram took off like a rocket!

Paz clung on for dear life! Then the Ram gave one enormous buck — and Paz went flying through the air — SPLAT! Straight into the muddy pig pen!

Roxie whipped out her camera. Click! Another photograph for the collection! Paz was completely covered in mud!

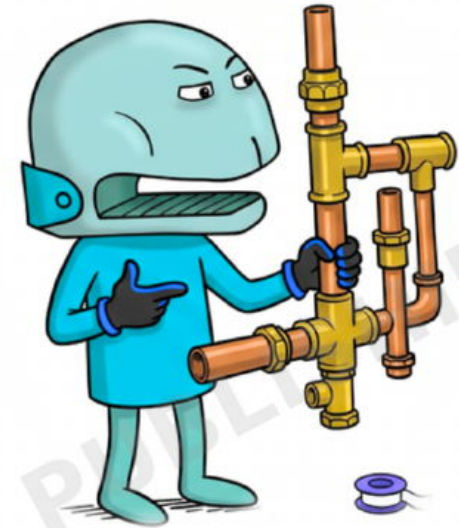

Bettie Bucket wouldn't go anywhere near Paz — she only likes clean things and paint and will never touch dirt or clean up messy tools! Luckily Bobby turned up with soap and a brush, more than happy to help.

Now the real work began! The tools got started on building a brand new barn. They even re-ploughed the field, straight and neat this time.

sort out— catching the runaway sheep!

Pete jumped on Harold and rounded up the sheep.

Roxie zoomed alongside on her quad bike.

Within minutes every single sheep was home!

Everything was finally back to normal.

Except for Lorenzo — because Frankie was sitting right in the strawberry patch, munching what was left!

The farm had never looked better! The field was ploughed to perfection. The new barn stood tall and ready for the animals to sleep in. Everything, at long last, was exactly as it should be.

Pete was thrilled. Everything was finally done.
Then — an engine roared! Ricky Rake was back in the farm truck, spinning the wheels, ready for another race!

The idea of The Tools came to me when I was 7 years old. I was doodling on a piece of paper and drew a saw with a face and arms and legs. Soon, more tool characters were created and my mum, dad and close family would always encourage me to make something of it.

Years later, I used the same idea and stories and created these children's books. With a Christian upbringing, I've always had a strong relationship with God and I truly believe He blesses us with ideas and things we might not even think to use. So for every idea or story that I write or have written, to God be the glory. Please find the inspirational Bible quote at the back of each of my books and may God bless each and every one of you.

and build one another up, just as you are doing. "
