Fun Reindeer Facts

Reindeer use their hooves like shovels to dig through the snow and find food.

While their antlers are growing, they're covered in soft, furry skin called "velvet".

In the frozen winter, reindeer eat snow to get the water they need.

They lose their antlers and grow a brand-new set each year!

Reindeer eyes are golden in summer and turn blue in winter, to help them see in the dark.